Next month, my family will travel to the beach for our summer vacation. My dad will drive our new car, and my mom will pack all our bags. Will we bring our dog, Buster? No, we won't; he will stay with our neighbor. My sister, Clara, will be very excited to swim in the ocean. She won't stop talking about it!

We will stay in a small hotel right by the sand. Every morning, I will wake up early to watch the sunrise. Will I go fishing with Dad? Maybe, but I won't catch many fish. We will build big sandcastles on the beach, and Clara will decorate them with seashells. We won't forget to put on sunscreen! For lunch, we will often eat at a little cafe that will serve delicious fish and chips. Will it be sunny every day? I hope so! In the evenings, we will take long walks along the shore. We will collect beautiful shells and listen to the waves. We will have a wonderful, relaxing time together.
